SACKED HOLIDAY.

YOM KIPPER WILL BEGIN THIS EVENING.

The most sacred of all Jewish holidays, Yom Ha' Kippurim, the day of atonement will be ushered in this evening (the eve of the tenth day of the seventh month Tishri). The celebration of the day is one of the most important landmarks of Judaism and is a visible expression of the religious doctrine of the Jew, that redemption from sin comes from within and not from without.

The sanctity of the day is augmented by the custom to abstain entirely from food and drink the entire day, though many reformed Jews do not practice this self denial. The prophets of ancient Israel already declared fasting to be of no avail if true repentance and the regeneration of the soul is not accomplished by the worshippers.

LARGE CROWD

COL. BELKNAP SPOKE AT PRINCETON YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Col. Morris K. Belknap, Republican nominee for Governor, spoke at Princeton, Ky., yesterday afternoon to a crowd of 3,000 or more people. He was accompanied by Attorney General Pratt and Judge Beckner, both of whom also spoke. Mr. L. C. Perry, of Paducah, attended, and reports the speeches very fine, and the crowd one of the most enthusiastic imaginable. Col. Belknap's talk was along the usual line, and elicited great applause.

ADDITION TO RESIDENCE.

Nate Bennett Shoots Watchman Allison.

Both Work on the Thomas Nevins and the Trouble Occurred Over a Rope.

ALLISON MAY NOT RECOVER

A serious if not fatal shooting affray occurred this afternoon about 1 o'clock at the foot of Ohio street in which Charlie Allison, of Bowling Green, Ky., watchman, was mortally wounded by John Bennett, first mate, of the steamer Thomas H. Nevins.

The ball struck Allison full in the back and penetrated the spine, inflicting what Dr. Frank Boyd thinks will prove a fatal wound.

The Nevins came into port last night from Memphis and this morning another smaller boat, belonging to the same company owning the Nevins, the Paducah Coal and Mining company, came over to do harbor work. The deck hands took several pieces of rope from the Nevins to use on the other boat, and Allison claims Bennett cursed him for letting the men have it, saying he was not doing his duty as a watchman. This started an argument in the course of which both men procured pistols. Allison claims Bennett struck him in the nose with the butt of his pistol and that he put his pistol aside and invited Bennett to fight it out in pugilistic style.

Bennett refused and Allison recovered his gun and placed it in his pocket. Bennett then started off the boat according to reports, and up towards town when Allison followed. When the bank was reached the latter came up and renewed the invitation to fight but Bennett refused. Allison then struck him several times, but not with sufficient force to knock him down. Bennett reached in his pocket and Allison ran. Bennett gained and when within range fired, striking Allison in the back. Only one shot was fired and the injured man was paralyzed from his shoulders down and has not been able to move since.

The police were notified of the affair and started officers out after Bennett who had disappeared. Allison was picked up and brought to Dr. Frank Boyd's office at Fourth and Broadway for attention. An examination revealed the fact that the bullet had entered the spine and completely paralyzed the lower limbs and shoulders.

Dr. Boyd turned the patient over to City Physician Robert Rivers who will this afternoon perform an operation and remove the bullet, if possible.

Allison in speaking of the shooting stated that he had acted unwisely in renewing the trouble and instead of "getting revenge," had "gotten just the reverse." He further stated that he did not intend using his gun as he had it in his pocket at the time he was shot and did not think Bennett intended using his.

Bennett is supposed to have crossed the river and gone into Illinois and officers at press time were still looking for him.

Attorney E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, this morning went to Murray to attend the first meeting of creditors in the voluntary bankrupt case of Charles Sessoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kamleiter and Miss Mary Berger have gone to Golconda to attend the state fair.

Clarksville, Tenn., Sept. 30.—C. S. Lowhorn, of Ringgold, this county, has been arrested, charged with bigamy. He came to this county from Jackson county, where he is said to have married a young woman last May. Three weeks ago he was wedded to Miss Fannie Wheeler, a well known young woman of Christian county, Ky. They were married in the county. It was a runaway match, owing to parental objections, and the ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock in the morning by a justice of the peace.

Several days ago a letter was received from his first wife stating that she was married to the man on the 12th of last May, and a warrant was issued for his arrest on the charge of bigamy. He was placed in the county jail here to await his preliminary trial. His second wife is prostrated with grief and humiliation.

A STATEMENT ISSUED THE LINE OF MARCH

President Roosevelt Meets Labor Leaders at White House.

His Position Is Clearly Defined in a Statement Afterwards Given to Press.

ALL APPARENTLY SATISFIED

Washington, Sept. 30.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Mr. Mitchell, the head of the United Mine Workers' organization, and four or five other members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, were in conference with the president last night for a long time.

The conference broke up about 1:13 o'clock, and shortly thereafter the following statement was given to the press at the White House:

"Pursuant to the request of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, the president granted an interview, this evening to the following members of the executive council of that body:

"Mr. Samuel Gompers, Mr. James Duncan, Mr. John Mitchell, Mr. James O'Connell and Mr. Frank Morrison at which various subjects of legislation in the interests of labor, as well as executive action, was discussed. Concerning the case of William A. Miller, the president made the following statement:

"I thank you and your committee for your courtesy and appreciate the opportunity to meet with you. It will always be a pleasure to see you or any of your representatives of your organizations or your federation as a whole.

"As regards the Miller case, I have little to add to what I have already said. In dealing with it I ask you to remember that I am dealing purely with the relation of the government to its employees. I must govern my action by the laws of the land which I am sworn to administer, which define any case in which the government of the United States is a party from all other cases whatsoever. These laws are enacted for the benefit of the whole people, and must not be construed as permitting discrimination against some of the people. I am president of all the people of the United States, without regard to creed, color, place, occupation or social conditions. My aim is to do equal and exact justice as among them all. In the employment service I can no more recognize the fact that a man does or does not belong to the union as being for or against him, than I can recognize the fact that he is a Protestant or Catholic, a Jew or Gentile, as being for or against him.

"In the communications sent me by various labor organizations protesting against the retention of Miller in the government printing office, the grounds alleged are twofold.

"First—That he is a non-union man; that he is not personally fit. The question of his personal fitness is one to be settled in the routine of administrative detail and cannot be allowed to conflict with or to complicate the larger question of governmental discrimination for or against him or any other man because he is or is not a member of a union. This is the only question now before me for a decision, and as to this my decision is final."

From the manner of the labor leaders as they came from the White house it was evident that they were entirely satisfied with the result of the interview. They declined to be interviewed, Mr. Gompers referring the reporters to the statement that would be given out by the president's secretary regarding the Miller case.

SEVENTY TO BE INITIATED.
The Woodmen of the World lodge here continue to grow rapidly, and State Manager J. M. Brewer, of Louisville, is here to attend a joint meeting tomorrow night of the lodges at Jersey Camp. Mr. Brewer and Organizer J. W. Hensley will after the business of the meeting drill a degree team that is to confer degrees on seventy candidates a week from tomorrow. It will be one of the largest classes ever initiated here.

Gen. Briggs Sends Rennion Parade Instructions.

Hon. Charles Reed Marshal of the Day—Order of March for Confederate Veterans.

THE 16TH THE BIG DAY

Arrangements are being made for a fine parade during the Confederate Veterans' reunion here next month, and it is hoped the people of Paducah will see to it that the reunion is not declared off on account of their indifference.

Colonel Charles Reed, of the Palmer house, has received a letter from General J. B. Briggs, who is now sojourning at Macinac Island, Mich., appointing him chief marshal of the day for the big parade at 1 p. m. on October 16 of the reunion. He and Colonel Thomas E. Moss are asked to select all the aides deemed necessary.

General Briggs has notified various members of his staff to be here in uniform, and mounted, and he will himself be.

The brigade meets at First and Broadway at 1 p. m., marches out to Ninth or Tenth street and then to the fair grounds, where there will be a barbecue at 2:30 p. m. The above is in accordance with the idea of General Briggs, but may be changed by Colonel Reed or Colonel Moss.

General Briggs will be at Potoskey for the next several days, and expects to give further directions from there.

The following is the order in which the companies will come in the parade:

Parade 2d Ky. Brigade at Paducah, Ky., at 1:30 p. m. October 16, 1903.

First—Chief of police and men mounted.

Second—Chief marshal and aides mounted.

Third—Brass band. Brigadier general and staff mounted. Staff mounted will report to General J. B. Briggs at Palmer house at noon 16th.

Fourth—Colonel H. S. Hale 7th regiment and staff mounted followed by camps of his regiment.

Fifth—Colonel T. J. Johnson and staff. 1st regiment mounted followed by camps of his regiment.

The News-Democrat has list of all the camps of each regiment. If more than one band they can be placed in front each regiment. If speakers are present they could be in a carriage to follow in rear of brigade staff and front of 7th regiment. In issuing notice of formation of brigade for parade, State 7th regiment form on one side of Broadway at 1st and 1st regiment on the other side. Commanding officers of each regiment is to issue orders to his camps assigning them their position in the line of parade.

J. B. BRIGGS, Commanding 2d Brig.

Subject to change at pleasure of Colonels Reed, Moss and Greif.

LOCATED THE TROUBLE

TWO WIRES IN THE CABLE WERE FOUND TO BE BROKEN.

For several months past the wires in the Ohio river cable of the Western Union Telegraph company here have been working badly, and last night an inspector arrived from Chicago. He is Mr. V. J. Kissinger, and he was accompanied today on an inspection of the cable by Lineman S. M. Duval and Operator S. H. Heilbronner of Paducah.

They soon located the trouble and found that two wires in the cable have been broken in some manner, totally disabling them. There are a dozen or more wires in the cable, however, so only a small part of the cable is damaged. It will be necessary to take it up, however, and repair it before all the wires will be in good working order again. This will probably require some little time after the work begins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knowles of Owensboro, will arrive in the city Saturday from Owensboro to visit Mrs. M. Knowles.
